[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wake Forest, N. C., March 3.-With favorable weather during the past (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Trinity College, Durham, March 3.—
According to his announced intentions, Coach Merie T. Adkins, of the Trinity College baseball team, made public today the names of the twenty-five players, who will compose what is known as the "squad," and to whom he will devote the greater part of his attention in order to develop then to the highest point of efficiency. The improvement of the grounds caused by the clearing of the Weather has given new impetus to practice, and every afterneon the candidates for the team are out hard at work. The following composed the squad selected:

Verdict Which Court in Rich- Habitual Criminal, Lashed to mond Confirmed Gave Him Five Years in Federal Prison.

DEFENDANT 71 YEARS OLD

Save Milton A. Carlisle From Term in Atlanta.

President Taft has interfered with the opinion of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, handed down in Richmond the first part of February, sustaining the District Court at Green, ville, S. C., in gentencing Milton A. Carlisle, convicted or misappropriating funds of the Newberry (S. C.) National Bank. It is understood that the President has directed the Department of Justice to hold up the case until he can investigate it.

Senator Tillman and Representatives Johnson, Finley and Ellerbe, of South Carvilla, told President Taft that the sentence was unmerited and excessive, Carlisle was arrested in June, 1965, on an indictinent of 162 counts, alleging violations of the national banking laws. He was tried and convicted on five and sentenced to live years in the Federal penitunitisty.

Suggests "The War Belween the States" as an Inscription on Soldiers' Memorial at Yale.

New Haven, Conn., March 3.—That President Taft favors "Tho War Between the States" instead of "The Civil War" as part of an inscription of a soldiers' memorial at Yale is a fact brought out by the details of the plans of the Yale Soldiers' Memorial Committee. The tittle, "The Civil War," will, however, probably be chosen by the committee, which has Judge Henry E. Howland, of New York, as president, has felected a plan representing "Alma Mater," a lifestee female figure, with a dead Union and Confederate soldier at her feet, to be placed in the Vall Mescal with a between the States will be stated to exceed twenty lashes.

ALLEN ESTATE IS SMALL

After Debts Are Settled Bride Will Only Have Marringe Settlement Left. (Special to The Fimes-Dispatch.) New York, March 3.—Twenty-year-old Mattle Laura Walker, former show girl, and Mrs. Daniel Cooke, her daughter-lin-law by her marriage to Elijah Marshall Allen, quarreled so bitterly while Allen lay dying ha local hospital a fortnight ago that the her bital authorities interfered to keep the peace. Allen was referred to as a millionaire and control of his estate was in question.

To-night it became known that after all Allen's debts are paid the estate would be nil, and the young bride would have only the amount of her marriage settlement, which was small. Mrs. Allen will return to the stage.
